During their residency at the PS, the German artists Matthias Daempfle and Elisabeth Bereznicki developed collaborative public performances which explored and created a mi-performances pose profound questions surrounding social constructs. While these works eloquently provide underpinnings or codes that reflect a connection with a physical space and social ecologies, they also challenge aspects of their relationship to themselves and to others.

#Nollywood hustlers & Nolly 2032//

The Swedish artists Sonia Hedstrand and Rut Karin Zettergren in continuation of their research project, Nollywood Hustlers & Nolly 2032', open up a critical space to interrogate local themes and production processes associated with the popular Nigerian Nollywood films. Their project explore the links between the trajectories of daily life in Lagos with issues of improvisation, adaptation, fiction and documentary. The project outlines a kind of thoughtful, layered frame which juxtaposes the local film production model with the European model.

 Screening open to the public only on appointment till 29 March, 2015.
