

Goethe-Institut Nigeria, in partnership with Video Art Network Lagos (VAN Lagos)
cordially invite you to a special

Media Art Screening

On Sat., 29. Oct., 2011. From 6pm

At Goethe-Institut Lagos, Lagos City Hall,
30, Catholic Mission Street, Lagos Island

Goethe-Institut Nigeria's monthly Art Slam takes a new dimension with the screening of experimental films from Nigeria and Germany. While experimental films and media art have a long history in Germany, the Nigerian scene is still young and not so well known. With this screening the Video Art Network of Lagos (VAN Lagos) wants to raise the public awareness for this art form and to stimulate the creation. Goethe-Institut Nigeria joins this initiative and will start a regular screening of experimental films, in collaboration with VAN Lagos.

The films shown will include works by Jude Anogwih, Jelili Atiku, Lucy Azubike, Uche Joel Chima, Victor Ehikhamenor and Mudi Yahaya, as well as German directors.

Be prepared for a very special screening!!
