

A photograph of a person with short blonde hair, wearing a red long-sleeved shirt, sitting at a desk and working with electronic equipment. The person is looking down at a keyboard or a similar device. There are many colorful cables (red, yellow, blue) connected to the equipment. The background is dark and textured.

Programme
September - October 2013

GOETHE INSTITUT

September 04, 2013
10am-2pm

A SingleLine/ performance by MAMAZA
Presentation/Workshop

MAMAZA, a German dance group, presents its performance project, ASingleLine, in Lagos. The Trio - Ionnis Mandafounis, Fabrice Mazliah, May Zarhy - began developing their common choreographic language in 2009, combining minimalist movement, different levels of perception and a delicate wit. Borrowing movements from daily life, they create comic effect by means of reduction and repetition, all systematically boiled down to the point where behavioural patterns and tendencies become visible. MAMAZA will also facilitate a dance workshop at the National Theatre's Artist Village.

September 21, 2013
2pm
Goethe-Institut Lagos

Free Entry!

Author's talk special with Sarah Diehl
Book Reading in German

Goethe-Institut Nigeria invites you to a special edition of Author's talk with German writer and filmmaker Sarah Diehl. Much of her work focuses on reproductive rights for women and she has presented a documentary on this topic in 2008. Her last novel "Eskimo Limon 9" deals with the topic of German-Jewish history in a very a culture-clash way. She is currently in Nigeria for research on her next book and film project. She will have a public discussion on her work and make a reading in German.

September 21, 2013
7pm
Freedom Park Lagos,
Old Prison Ground Broad Street,
Lagos Island Lagos, Nigeria.

Free Entry!

Film Club
The Film Club Screening

PIANOMANIA dir. Lilian Franck and Robert Cibis, 2009, Germany/Austria

Stefan Knüpfer is a virtuoso piano tuner from the piano company Steinway and Sons. PIANO-MANIA follows his work with pianists such as Lang Lang, Alfred Brendel and Pierre-Laurent Aimard. The film revolves around Knüpfer's collaboration with Aimard and how both overcome the different obstacles on their path to recording J.S. Bach's The Art of Fugue. The Film Club screening is in co-operation with the IREP International Documentary Film Festival and Freedom Park, Lagos.

September 23-27,
2013
Goethe-Institut Lagos

Free Entry!

Films for Peace
Film Screening

In celebration of World Peace Day, the Video Art Network, in collaboration with Goethe-Institut Nigeria, is organizing a screening of selected works from the PUMA films4peace initiative. These engaging works by contemporary artists are screened and discussed at cultural and educational venues globally and online via websites, blogs and media channels on and after World Peace Day on 21 September each year. The aim is to effect positive social change and broaden the discussions around peace globally.

September 29, 2013
5.20pm

Lights, Camera, Africa!!! Film Festival with special screening of FINCHO

Free Entry!

October 04, 2013

7pm

Goethe-Institut Lagos

Free Entry!

October 19, 2013

7:00pm

Freedom Park, Lagos

Free Entry!

October 22, 2013

7:00pm

Goethe-Institut Lagos

Free Entry!

Film Screening

The Life House, Lagos is organizing the 3rd Lights, Camera, Africa!!! Film Festival together with the African Film Festival, New York and Nadia Denton©, London from September 28 to October 1. During the festival, Goethe-Institut Nigeria presents Sam Zebba's FINCHO, which will have its Nigerian Premiere on Sunday, September 29 at Freedom Park.

The first -ever film to be shot in colour in Nigeria, FINCHO, tells the story of a young Nigerian caught in the web of tradition and modernization, love and honour. This exceptional document of Nigerian film history will be screened for the first time in Nigeria.

Concert with Burnt Friedman / Back to the future of dance

Club Night

Burnt Friedman is one of Germany's most long established and highly rated electronic musicians with a career spanning almost 40 years. His work has been critically acclaimed by the international music press. He will perform his first Lagos concert together with local percussion star Wura Samba within the "Back to the future of dance" label.

Film-Club

Film Screening

NAIJ: A History of Nigeria, dir. Jide Olanrewaju, 2007, Nigeria

The documentary takes an unusual look at Nigerian history pre- and post-independence, revealing previously unknown facts about the deals and deeds that continue to shape the country's future. With rarely-seen footage from numerous sources, NAIJ, is an important history lesson for film lovers and political enthusiasts alike.

The Film Club screening is in co-operation with the IREP International Documentary Film Festival and Freedom Park, Lagos.

Film Screening

Hip Hop: The New World Order dir. Muhamida El Muhajir affirms Hip Hop culture as a powerful vehicle for self-expression by youth around the world, empowering them in the areas of education, economics, politics, entertainment, and new media.

The groundbreaking film was shot in eight cities over a span of four years and has mushroomed into a rare archive and video survey of pioneering artists and communities at the turn of the 21st century.

Filmmaker in attendance.

October 26-November 18, 2013

Goethe-Institut Lagos
Free entry!

October 27-November 23, 2013

Goethe-Institut Lagos
Free Entry!

October 26-29, 2013

Eko Hotel and Suites
By invitation only!

Venue, time and date to be confirmed

September 20, 2013
7:00pm

Freedom Park, Lagos Island
Free entry!

October 04, 2013
10:00-11:00am

Goethe-Institut
Free Entry!

October 08-12, 2013

Opening of Witness Exhibition

Witness is an exhibition representing how a group of emerging African photographers perform the role of active onlookers. Each participant's work is evidence of a process of critically surveying their immediate environments. Curated by Sammy Baloji and Monique Pelsler, the exhibition features six other prominent African photographers. In partnership with LagosPhoto.

Opening of the Master Class exhibition

This exhibition features works produced during a photography workshop facilitated by Berlin-based Nigerian photographer and curator Akinbode Akinbiyi. In partnership with LagosPhoto.

Portfolio Review

Organized by Goethe-Institut South Africa, renowned international curators (Chris Dercon, Simon Njami, and others) will be analyzing and discussing portfolios of aspiring photographers. In partnership with LagosPhoto.

Film Club Screening

HOW TO MAKE A BOOK WITH STEIDL dir. by Gereon Wetzel and Joerg Adolph, 2010, Germany

In this age of digital media, Gerhard Steidl stands out as one of the few remaining publishers to maintain an unwavering commitment to the quality and craftsmanship of the printed book. For more than forty years, Steidl has personally supervised the publishing and printing of some of the most significant books on fashion, art, and photography. In partnership with LagosPhoto.

Programme by our partners

Afropolitan Vibes

Bantu invites you to the 6th edition of Afropolitan Vibes. This month's show will feature the King of Yoruba rap Lord Ajasa, Soul Songstress Ebisan & Afrobeat sensation Edaoto all sharing the stage with the 11-piece Bantu band.

Q&A with DAAD

Info-session

Representative of the DAAD in Ibadan, Mrs. Hannah Schlingmann will provide one-on-one advice and information about studying in Germany in general as well as funding opportunities with the DAAD.

In-Short Film Festival

Balewa Square, Onikan, Lagos.
Free Entry!

festival (IN-SHORT), now in its third edition, aims at providing a platform for the upcoming Nigerian and African shortfilm scene. The festival will host a professional forum for young filmmakers and also reward the best films in competition. Full programme will be announced on its website www.in-short.org.
Organized by the International Film and Broadcast Academy Lagos.

October 26, 2013

9:00am-4:00pm

Goethe-Institut

TestAs Examination

Test your skills with TestAs and gain Higher chances for admission at a German university. Guidance for choosing the right study programme and prediction of my study performance.

Further questions? info@lagos.goethe.org

Language Department

Examination Dates

October 14, 2013

October 15, 2013

Examinations

Start Deutsch A1 Examination (Written)

Start Deutsch A1 Examination (Oral)

Registration: 07.- 11.10.2013

November 18, 2013

November 19, 2013

Start Deutsch A2 Examination (Written)

Start Deutsch A2 Examination (Oral)

Registration: 21.- 30.10.2013

German Classes

Language Courses

The next trimester for the language course begins on the 9th of September, 2013. For further information, please contact our language department: phone 01 774 6888, e-mail: language@lagos.goethe.org

Contact

Goethe-Institut Nigeria, German Cultural Centre;
30, Catholic Mission Street, opp. Holy Cross Cathedral, Lagos Island, Lagos
Tel: +234 (0)1 774 6888 | Email: info@lagos.goethe.org;

www.goethe.de/nigeria

Kano Liaison Office, 21 Sokoto Road, Nassarawa G.R.A., Kano
Email: info@kano.goethe.org

Become our fan on facebook!
www.facebook.com/goethe.nigeria

Follow us on Twitter!
www.twitter.com/GoetheNigeria

LIVEINLAGOS
www.liveinlagos.org

Please note: The Institute will be closed on all public holidays.

Disclaimer: Due to the early conception of this programme calendar, dates and times may be subject to change. Kindly verify the updated data on Goethe-Institut Nigeria's homepage on www.goethe.de/nigeria, on our facebook page or via telephone: +234 (0)1 774 6888.

Programme Summary

Arts	Presentation	ASingleline/ Performance by MAMAZA (04.09.2013)
Music	New Music	Concert with Burnt Friedman/Back to the Future (04.10.2013)
Education	Info-Session	Office Hours with Hannah Schlingmann (04.10.2013)
Film	Screening	Film-Club Special: 'PIANOMANIA' (21.09.2013)
Literature	Book Reading	Author's Talk Special with Sarah Diehl (21.09.2013)
Partners	Music	Afropolitan Vibes (20.09.2013)
	Festival	InShort Film Festival (08-12.10.2013)
Language	Examination	Start Deutsch 1 Examination (14. & 15.10.2013)
	Examination	Zertifikat Deutsch B1.B2 & C1 Examination (05.06.12.13 & 07.11.13)
	Registration	Language Course Registrations (02.09. - 27.09.2013)
	Courses	Language Course (Beginning: 09.09.2013)