Black Box: "Lagos – Nocturnal Vibrations"

Black Box is a new photography collective. Black Box is: Andrew Esiebo, Mary Kasim, Adeniyi Odeleye, Abraham Oghobase, Uche Okpa-Iroha, Charles Ologeh. They came together at the photo workshop FootballWorlds, organized by Goethe-Institut Lagos and conducted by Akinbode Akinbiyi (Berlin) in March, 2006. With Lagos - Nocturnal Vibrations, Black Box presents its maiden exhibition. The energy of the city of Lagos is the major drive for these inquisitive young photographers. They interpret and present it raw, each to his/her perception. This collection of outstanding photographs reflects the multi-faceted nightlife of the metropolis: lights, traffic, poverty, joy, icons, trade, restlessness, music ... Discover the youngest generation of Nigerian photographers and let them take you along on an emotional night-trip through this unique city.
